

FFIS Policy on Independent Study/Directed Readings Courses

Independent Studies/Directed Readings courses will be limited to emergencies only when taught on campus.

Independent Studies /Directed Readings courses will only be approved for students who have exceptional circumstances that do not allow them to be physically present during a regularly scheduled 400-level course, or if there are no courses being offered that they need. The IS/DR courses were designed for these situations.

Students who are interested in specific topics outside of regularly scheduled 400-level courses can explore these subjects during the Capstone experience or as a Bachelor's Essay.